Clerk of Court to open new South Lake Branch Office Newly-relocated office to process marriage licenses and passports

TAVARES — The Lake County Clerk's Office will resume operations in south Lake County at its new South Lake Branch Office, now located at 290 Citrus Tower Blvd., Suite 116, Clermont, beginning Monday, March 8 for processing of marriage licenses and passports.

The newly-relocated branch office is situated behind the Citrus Tower Village Publix Shopping Center and will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (closed from noon to 1 p.m.), Monday through Friday.

Passports will be processed by appointment only, however; marriage license processing is first come, first served. To schedule a passport appointment, visit www.LakeCountyClerk.org/Administrative_Services/Passports.aspx.

Customers will be required to wear masks and practice social distancing at all times while in the branch office. Those who are experiencing COVID-like symptoms, or who have recently been exposed to someone who has tested positive, are asked to not visit the office and to reschedule any appointments.

Passport services by appointment only, and marriage license services without an appointment, are also available Monday through Friday at the Lake County Courthouse, 550 W. Main St., Tavares, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and at the North Lake Branch Office, 902 Avenida Central, The Villages of Lady Lake from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (closed from noon to 1 p.m.).

For more information about marriage licenses or passports, visit www.LakeCountyClerk.org, or call (352) 253-2648.
