The Clerk assumes no responsibility for system downtime during hours of availability. The Customer is hereby made aware that the system may be unavailable at the option of the Clerk.
- B. The Customer is responsible for Customer site equipment. Clients will need to secure their own access Internet account with an Internet Service Provider.

V. GENERAL

The Clerk does not imply or expressly warrant that the information accessed by the customer is accurate or correct. The Clerk shall not be liable for any loss, cost, damage, or expense arising directly or indirectly in connection with this Agreement or any amendments or attachments thereto. In no event shall the Clerk be liable for any special or consequential damages or for any indirect damages resulting from the Customer's use or application of the information accessed as a result of this Agreement using the system. Information provided is not a replacement for the original records. Parties should refer to the printed version of the records and independently verify the accuracy of the information.

Any person or entity using this information hereby releases, acquits, and forever discharges the Clerk and its officers, agents, and employees from any and all claims, actions, causes of action, demands, rights, damages, costs, loss of services, expenses, and compensation whatsoever, known or unknown, now existing or hereafter accruing, on account of or in any way growing out of these and/or subsequent updates to the FTP site and website or the information contained herein. This specifically includes, without limitation, any such claims which arise out of the negligence of any or all of the persons released.

This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with Florida law. In the event that any legal proceedings are commenced as a result of this Agreement, the venue for any such proceedings is Lake County, Florida. The Clerk maintains all immunities provided by law including, without limitation, the limits of liability found in Section 768.28, Florida Statutes.

VI. SYSTEM SECURITY

By signing this agreement, the Customer agrees to assist the Clerk in maintaining the security and integrity of the Clerk’s computer system. Specifically, the Customer assumes responsibility to keep access identification and passwords confidential, and to ensure that users only access the system to fulfill official duties. In addition, the Customer agrees to inform the Clerk’s office if access to the system is no longer needed for any reason by any individual user or if access to the system in its entirety is no longer needed by the Customer.

Initial access identification and passwords will be issued by the Clerk’s office and renewed annually. However, if the Customer at any time has reason to believe that user access identification and/or passwords have been compromised, the Customer shall immediately inform the Clerk’s office to make arrangements for resetting this information. The point of contact for such notification is, Clerk’s Office Service Desk at (352) 742-4330.
